Local Option-No. 5. I think I have proven beyond question that if local option prevailed here the revenues of our city would be increased rather than diminished, as the easts of supping our municipal government would be greatly reduced under the improved order and lessening of pauperism, consequent on the batishment of the liquor traffic. And I further claim to have shown conclusively that business would not be injuriously effected, but rather much improved by the new order of things, so that the scare of some good business men was without any warrant. And I believe that a new era of prosperity would come to our old town, resulting rom an increased population, attracled hither by the good order and absence of temptation to drink, and resulting also from the expendi ture for household accessities of the money ti herto spent in liquor, and that with improved order and trade here capital would be attracted to Alexandria and manufacturing enterprises would soon spring up in our midst. I have likewise given the opinions of some of the most learned judges and statis'cians, showing that four fifths of all the crime is traceable to drink, and have a mass of statistics and facts proving that where local option prevails that a marvellous change for the better is everywhere manifest, so that in some places the jails are nithout an inhabitant, and criminal processes grow more and more rare. As an evidence of the result in Worcester county, MJ., I quote: 'In one year after the law was in force in this county, the State's Attorney stated that his ters went down from $1,200 to $1,500 per annual to $300." In Caroline, Calvert, Talbot and Dorchester counties the results have been simply marvellous. I quoto from a cor-respondent of the Beltimore Sun, residing in Calvert county: "The effice of jailor in Prince Frederick is now almost a sinecure. He is fast bosoming a gentleman of leisure. The busi-ness of the court is growing less. Give us ten years of good enforcement of this law and we will show an empty jail, lawyers with scarcely a Bilious Colic. brief | bad for lawyers, you see, | judges without | FUTT'S PILLS oriminal cusce, taxes largely reduce batter filled and universal good order." all this will not be a dream, as the same result is reached nearly everywhere. I mentioned also that it could be proven that it cos's the people of the U. S. the vast sum of $1,200,000, 000 per annum for drink, and its resulting sicknest, crime, &c. I called attention to the good results already reached here in Alexandria by the Temperance Reform so successfully carried on, and if such improvement be manifest already, what will be the effect, when we succeed in driving the traffic away? In my last paper I demonstrated that self protection demanded that the sale of liquor here should cease; that es there was law to abate nuisances ir judicial to the public health, so there ought to be law to destroy a traffic that is constantly prejudicial to rublic morals; that all license laws were really permission by the State to muin men and promote crime; that you might just as well li-cense "the see al evil," sampling, lotteries, &c., &c., as to license the sale of liquor; that "the greatest good to the greatest number" demanded that the traffic be distroyed, although it might beggar those who, as a class, have beg gared hundreds of thusands. And now my work for the present in this direction is nearl done. I call on all good men and true, who believe that this curse should be swept away, to sgitate this subject urcessingly, until the whole community is thoroughly leavened by the truth, and until, in your might, you can demand as a right what has recouly been denied you. Surely when we remember the ruin that has been wrought in countless homes; the misery of heart broken wives and the sufferings of innce nt children, the degredation of man, who, otherwise, might be neb'e and good, and that all efforts at the amelioration of suffering and for the elevation of man have as their greatest for the curse of drink, we ought to banish its public sale foreve. Lut us make as our motio that of the Temperance Alliaces of Maryland, viz: Moral suasion for the drinker, legal suasion for the seller, total abstinence for the individual and prohibition for the traffic. I have said but little directly on the subject of morals. We preach Temperate: everywhere. Lat stain from sermonizing in the public prints at this time, and shall only say that I believe that dram drinking is a sin against man's own beds, and as this is the temple of the Holy Ghost, so to drink ardent spirits as a beverage is to sin against God. The life insurance companies. who have closely studied vital statistics, will not insure a drinking man. The tables show that the expectation of life of an intemperate man is less than one half | about 40 per cont. | of that of a temperate mar. It is now held ty nearly all the leading tolentists and physicians that a'cohol is poisoe; that it has no value as a fied, and that as a remedial agent its use is more than questionable. If then it be not a food, if it be a poison, if it in no way builds up the health and strength of men, we claim that its use is sinful, and ought to be banished from our midst. I am not responsible if the truths I have written have resped the sensitilities of bor and pray for the extirpation of the most crying evil of the times.

New York, Sept. 19, 1877.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—During this year I treated nine hundred cases of lung diseases. In the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was called to Tutt's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years I have never known a medsurprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years I have never known a medicinate act as promptly and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most violen fits of coughing, and invariably cured the disease in a few days. I cheerfully endorse it as the best lung medicine I ever used.
